

Lady Raiders sweep Breckenridge

The Rider volleyball teams swept the Breckenridge Lady Buckaroos Tuesday night, taking the varsity, junior varsity and both freshman matches at the Rider gym.

The Lady Raiders won the varsity match, 15-13, 15-7, to improve to 4-15 for the season with Elizabeth Gregg earning the coach's praise for her serving.

"We did well, considering we had a three-day layoff after playing in such a tough tournament," Rider coach Stacy Wolf said.

The Rider JV improved to 4-4 on the season as it won 15-0, 15-12, while the ninth-grade teams are a combined 7-5 after the A team beat Breckenridge 15-7, 15-9, and the B team won 15-8, 15-10.

Burkburnett knocks off Holliday

HOLLIDAY — The Burkburnett Lady Bulldogs stormed past the Holliday Lady Eagles in two straight games in area volleyball Tuesday night.

The Lady Bulldogs won 15-6, 15-5 to drop Holliday to 7-5 for the season.

Holliday did win the other matches as the junior varsity won 15-8, 15-10 and the freshmen won 15-11, 15-7.

Burkburnett (9-10) was led by Diana Walck (12-for-12 serving); Julia Graham six kills, four blocks; Sarah Mills with nine kills; and Brittany Willson with four blocks. Jamie Logan and Shera Taylor also contributed.

Graham defeats WFHS in 3 games

Wichita Falls High School's volleyball team lost a close one to Graham Tuesday night, falling in an 8-15, 15-5, 16-14 three-gamer at Coyote Fieldhouse.

The loss dropped the Lady Coyotes to 6-7 overall.

Standouts for WFHS included Melissa Easterling, Pam Araujo and Lyndsey Ralston. Easterling finished with two aces, while Ralston had two kills and four digs on the evening. Both Easterling and Araujo were credited with playing sound defense, Lady Coyotes coach Ann Armendarez said.

VOLLEYBALL

WFHS next will take on Gainesville Thursday in the Buckle Up For Lane's Sake Tournament, formerly called the Nocona Tournament. First serve for the Lady Coyotes is set for 10 a.m.

In junior varsity action, WFHS defeated Graham in three sets, 17-15, 13-15, 15-9, to improve its record to 3-0 on the season. The Lady Coyote freshman 'A' team also beat Graham, 2-15, 15-14, 15-13, improving to 4-3 on the year.

WFHS' freshman 'B' team lost to Graham, 15-11, 15-8. The Lady Coyotes fell to 1-4 on the season.

Lady Knights post win over Nocona

NOCONA — Danielle Wilhelm was 100 percent successful on her serves, and Kristy Ciuba had six kills Tuesday night as Notre Dame defeated Nocona, 15-2, 15-10, in a high school volleyball match.

Mary Foley and Cassie Schmucker both had good nights setting, more than 20 each, and played well on defense, according to Notre Dame coach Lisa Macha.

Amanda Lewis "had a really good night passing on service receives — 20 of her 22 attempts were good," Macha said.

"Finally we had a night where we came out strong and stayed strong," Macha said. "With our district starting next week, we needed that."

Notre Dame improved its record to 6-8.

In the junior varsity match, Nocona defeated Notre Dame, 15-7, 10-15, 15-1.

Bryson rallies past Hirschi

BRYSON — Bryson defeated Hirschi, 13-15, 15-12, 15-11, Tuesday night in a high school volleyball match.

Bryson improved its record to 3-7.

In the junior varsity match, Hirschi won, 15-10, 15-7.